

Newtown MediSpa Privacy Policy

Newtown MediSpa deeply respects the privacy of its visitors. You are not required to register or provide any personal information to access information on our site. We do not sell or share your name, email address, or other personally identifiable information with any third party without your explicit consent or as required by law.

Newtown MediSpa does not buy, sell, rent, or trade email lists. All email marketing efforts we undertake are targeted toward individuals who have opted and agreed to be contacted by us in such a manner.

Information from our web server. Our web server automatically tracks site visitor usage of the Newtown MediSpa website. This information includes only the domain name; it does not collect email addresses or any other personally identifiable information.

The information we collect automatically by our web server is used to better understand general site usage patterns, improve site usability, and improve site content. This information does not include any personally identifiable information. We do not participate in "retarget" marketing, which drops a "cookie" on your computer and then proceeds to follow you with an advertisement of our services.

No personally identifiable information is automatically collected. Personally identifiable information provided by site visitors through our website or email will not be shared with any third party without your explicit consent or as required by law. Providing this information is strictly optional. Visitors who have provided us with their email) address and have opted into receiving marketing emails, will periodically receive an email from Newtown MediSpa with information about our services and products. You will always have the option to opt out of such email marketing campaigns.

If you elect to keep your record private, or do not wish to receive email campaigns from Newtown MediSpa, please contact us to opt out of such communications.

Your privacy is very important to us. Thank You.
